

Agenda – Parks and Rec. 04/13/26

Selectboard Advocate: Comment from Selectboard Advocate will be held to the end of all meetings not to disrupt the meeting progression and current business to be attended to by the commission.

Approve Minutes: Approve minutes: 10/13/25

Treasurer Update:

Revolving Account Balance is $ 9,733.60 (2/4/26)

Budget:

Go over 2026 approved budget. Plan out the year accordingly.

Bagley Park:

No spring sports at Bagley. Will just be setting up for open gate season.

Ice Rink:

Get the rink put away as soon as possible, to beat spring floods. Discuss the punch list for next year now with the new rink up and running. This season was one of the best in record, opening the rink 12/11/25 last day 1/11/26. This will give us a good budget for moving forward on hours and needs.

Riverside Park:

UPDATE: Advantage Tennis will seal cracks for 2026, approx. $1512, and will need to budget for resurfacing 2027, at $12,627.

Discuss Park Clean Up Day, and Co-Ed Softball (registration increased to $235) and WYSA sports.

Silver Lake:

Start cleanup of beach of pine needles and branches. Grade and drag for season opening.

Seasonal Help:

Ian will give us a recap for the Rink Attendant part of our seasonal employee.

New Hire for the regular Park Season, will give update on this.

Important Dates:

Paint the Dugouts: TBD

Adopt-A-Highway Date: Will set new date in Spring.

Opening Day youth Sports: Usually in May

Co-Ed Softball: Usually end of April first of May
