

Review town owned properties for potential sales to create new housing and other opportunities such as annexation to existing residents. The incremental tax base will be an additional benefit for the town.